

Sketch from "Seal" mentioned on P. 44.

on the 13. Jan: 1890. a paper entitled Notes on the V.W. dog - consisting of 6 1/2 pages of printed matter - was read by Professor O'Grilly. before the Royal Irish Academy -
The sole matter of interest was to this effect.

About 14 yrs. one William Dooley - an Irishman residing in Spain - wrote a book in which the following remarks occur.

"The ordinary wolves are rare (in Spain)
" either because there are few small cattle or " because the whole country being covered with
" farms - is not once hunted & killed by the " excellent greyhound dogs - which they have
