

"hunting & keeping of hounds & greyhounds
"Or daining that every hound holder should find "him (2 hounds & 1 greyhound & he that killed)
"a wolf sh. have an ox for his pain. etc.
"again "Ed Eruss (15. King - 60 B. C.)
"Chief delight was altogether in hunting & in "keeping of hounds & grey hounds & to "the expense will be made and mainly
"the wolf - the hound man's foe - by means "of the wolf his advancement was made the "more acceptable amongst the nobles - who
"in those days were wholly given to that "kind of game & pastime

From Mac Cull had a famous hound called "Brani" & Cu culain a warrior who lived at the beg. of the Xth Cen, got his name from having killed one of these animals during his boyhood. He was the nephew of the King of Ireland and was brought up in a military school that was attached to the palace. Where boys of good family were trained in athletic sports etc. The lad who was afterwards known as Cu culain was much younger than his companions but he was tall & strong for his age & easily overcame them in their games. Now it happened that one day a smith whose name was Culain & who was famous for making armour and all sorts of weapons came to the palace & asked the King to allow to a feast at his honor. The King ^{accepted} ~~was~~ & asked the